

Aberdeen Evening Express - Saturday 04 December 1971

The Mearns Camera Club has well and truly started their activities in the new Stonehaven Community Centre in the former Fetteresso Primary School. They meet every Monday evening and a darkroom has been fitted out. This week they had an illustrated talk given by Mr Len Leigh, president of the Aberdeen Camera Club. On Monday a prominent member of Bon-Accord Camera Club, Mr J A McIntosh, will talk on monochrome prints. (Club secretary is Mr J. G. Imlach, 21 Burnett Road, Stonehaven.

Aberdeen Evening Express - Saturday 22 April 1972

The Mearns Camera Club are nearing the end their first full winter season and Monday at the Stonehaven Community Centre, they will have their main guest Aberdeen Camera Club president, Mr Len Leigh. He is to give a commentary on the slides and prints entered by members in the club's monthly competitions.

Aberdeen Evening Express - Saturday 21 April 1973

Always ready to welcome new members is the Mearns Camera Club, who held their annual meeting in Stonehaven Community Centre this week. Re-elected were Mr John Law chairman and Mr J. G. Imlach, 21 Burnett Road, as secretary and treasurer. The club caters for black and white and colour photography. Visits in the summer are to be arranged to the sea bird sanctuary at Fowl's Heugh and Loch Kinord.

Aberdeen Evening Express - Saturday 12 April 1975

THE MEARN'S Camera Club held their annual general meeting, this week and the following officials were appointed President. J. Law. secretary and treasurer J. Imlach: competitions secretary. A Whyte. all Stonehaven. Committee members are M G Stephen, Maryculter P Dean, Kinneff

Aberdeen Evening Express - Saturday 08 November 1975

MONDAY'S meeting of the Mearns Camera Club in the Stonehaven Community Centre is to be a print and slide criticism evening by Mr Ian McCurrah for which there is a substantial entry. This week the club had a tape-slide show by Mr Ian Strachan entitled "Unto the Hills "

Aberdeen Evening Express - Saturday 13 December 1975

MEARN'S Camera Club held a successful show of members' slides of towns in Scotland arranged jointly by Mr J. Stuart Cardno and Mr Sandy Whyte. Next Monday at the Stonehaven Community Centre, the last of the year, they are to have a competition of photos taken on the club's outing this year to Muchalls Castle.

Aberdeen Evening Express - Saturday 31 January 1976

MEARN'S Camera Club had a Print and Slide "battle" with the Montrose Photographic Club in the Stonehaven Community Centre this week. The entries were judged members of the Matrix Camera Club of Brechin showing a win for Montrose with 41pts. against 34 for monochrome prints and 74½ against 69 for colour slides. Next Monday there is to be an illustrated talk on Deep Sea Fishing.

Aberdeen Evening Express - Saturday 10 April 1976

Mearns Camera Club had a good turnout at their AGM in the community centre and the following were elected to office. President A. B. Whyte, joint secretaries J. G Imlach and J. S. Cardno; competition secretary G. Leiper; committee Miss C. Clark, M. G. Stephen and J. Brown. The committee are to meet shortly to devise a syllabus for next winter to give members an opportunity of preparing for competitions during the summer months. A visit to Old Aberdeen is contemplated.

Aberdeen Evening Express - Saturday 12 June 1976

Mearns Camera Club: About 30 members and friends held an outing to Aberdeen on Monday to hear climber Chris Bonnington. The members have also been to Old Aberdeen to take photos in preparation for next winter's competitions

Aberdeen Evening Express - Saturday 12 February 1977

THE Mearns Camera Club are holding a competition on "Trees" at their meeting in Stonehaven Community Centre on Monday. This week's talk by Mr Neil Cook, warden at Glen Muick. was on wildlife and much enjoyed.

Aberdeen Press and Journal - Saturday 04 June 1977

Scots Salon Honour Stonehaven man Mr William Izatt, 40 Ann Street; has had four coloured slides submitted as entries accepted by the Scottish Salon of Photography for their exhibition, which is held Greenock this month. The information came yesterday in a letter to Mr J. Stuart Cardno. secretary of the Mearns Camera Club based at Stonehaven of which Mr Izatt. a retired principal art teacher, is a member.

Aberdeen Evening Express - Saturday 20 January 1979

THE Mearns Camera Club re-started their activities on Monday in the community centre. In a competition entitled "People at Work" results were Black and white. Stuart Cardno. coloured, John Imlach and 2 and 3) Cathie Clark. Next Monday the centre is closed but the club have as guest speaker Mr Doug Westland, well-known North-east photographer from Inverurie, and the club hope to arrange another venue

Aberdeen Press and Journal - Wednesday 04 November 1998

MEARNS Camera Club last night announced the winner of its second open competition. In the print section. Margaret Sinclair of Stonehaven came first with Boat House. The winning slide was submitted by Gordon Haggart, while the second place was shared by Mr Haggart, Cathie Clark, of Stonehaven, and Colin Erskine, of Newtonhill. Throughout November, a print exhibition of local scenes by club president Martin Sim is being held in Stonehaven library.